

<background> This is a background of the website pages. The back ground of the website will be plain white and nothing fancy.

<body>

Under body I will have following element. Header1, header2, and paragraph.

<h1> title of the page

<h2> subtitle of the page

 paragraph as a description.

<text -color> I want the heading and subheading <h1> and <h2> dark grey color. Paragraph text will be in blank text.

<font-family> Font family will be Ariel.

<font-size> for the paragraph regular size 12 and for any topic it will be size 12 and bold.

<mages> Images on the website will be square and 3 images per row and goes 4 column per page.

<alignment> All the title will be aligned in the center and also the paragraph will be aligned in the center.

<margin> It will be defined in % so it will be responsive for all the screen resolution.

 Use hyperlink whenever need to redirect the user to know more information about the particular work.

<link> Use link to redirect the user to another page

<button> Button for users to contact us or open email or more details buttons

<nav> Navigation menu will have dropdown options for the submenus and inner pages.

 All the article, posts, side columns, and sections will be separated by divs.

<footer> Footer will be there in every pages. It will contain all the quick links and contact information of the business. Also, it will have social media icons and form to fill out to contact the business owner.

* Defines an ordered list

<form> HTML form for user input

<input> Enter names and details in contact form

<footer-color> Footer color will be light grey.